

B1 Reading comprehension match-up

Beginner's luck for man who found Norwegian gold

1. A Norwegian man who found a new hobby...
  2. After his doctor told him to get out more, 51-year-old...
  3. On one expedition around the countryside, the...
  4. By the end of the day, he had made...
  5. The find was 22 golden objects in total, weighing...
  6. At first sight Bore thought it was just...
  7. But as he began to dig deeper in the spot...
  8. The collection dates back to...
  9. This was a period when there was no Roman control...
  10. The items likely belonged...
  11. Norwegian law says that anything found...
  12. So while Bore may have found the ancient jewellery on...
  13. There is some good news...
  14. He can expect to get a finder's fee, which will be split...
-
- A. ...around 100 grams.
  - B. ...beginner took his new metal finding device.
  - C. ...that is older than 1537 is state property.
  - D. ...discovered something much more than that.
  - E. ...chocolate coins dropped in the dirt.
  - F. ...to powerful people.
  - G. ...for Erland Bore however.
  - H. ...the biggest gold discovery of the century in Norway.
  - I. ...approximately the fifth and sixth centuries.
  - J. ...equally between himself and the owner of the land.
  - K. ...private farmland, the plan is to put it on show in a museum.
  - L. ...Erland Bore considered hiking.
  - M. ...over Western Europe and so societies travelled more.
  - N. ...he found rings, parts of a necklace, and other pieces

B1 Reading comprehension match-up

Beginner's luck for man who found Norwegian gold

Answers

1D, 2L, 3B, 4H, 5A, 6E, 7N, 8I, 9M, 10F, 11C, 12K, 13G, 14J

Full lesson with interactive and listening exercises at:

<https://www.everybitenglish.com/lesson-20230918-intermediate-b1-norwegian-gold>